"AN ACT CONCERNING REVISIONS TO THE CHILD SUPPORT STATUTES."

1 After line 123, insert the following:

2 "Sec. 5. Subsection (f) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is 3 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

4 (f) Commencing no later than the first pay period in the case of an 5 employer, or the date of periodic payment in the case of a payer of 6 income other than an employer, that occurs after fourteen days
7 following the date of service of an order for withholding and within 8 seven business days of the date the obligor is paid thereafter, an 9 employer or other payer of income shall pay sums withheld pursuant 10 to the withholding order to the state disbursement unit, as required by 11 subsection (p) of this section, provided an employer may charge a fee 12 of five dollars from each pay check of each obligor for which such 13 employer is required to pay sums withheld to the state, for 14 administrative expenses. When orders for withholding are payable on 15 behalf of a dependent in a IV-D support case, as defined in subdivision

16 (14) of subsection (b) of section 46b-231, the employer or other payer of 17 income (1) shall specify the dates on which each withholding occurred
18 and the amount withheld for each obligor on each such date, and (2)
19 may combine all withheld amounts into a single payment to the state 20 disbursement unit with the portion thereof which is attributable to 21 each individual obligor being separately designated. If an employer or 22 other payer of income fails to withhold from income due an obligor
23 pursuant to an order for withholding or fails to make those payments, 24 such employer or other payer of income is liable to such person for the 25 full amount of income not withheld since receipt of proper notice in an 26 action therefor, and the amount secured in the action shall be applied 27 by such person toward the arrearage owed by the obligor. Such 28 employer or other payer of income shall be subject to a finding of 29 contempt by the court or family support magistrate for failure to honor 30 such order for withholding."
